CHICAGO PARK DISTRICT GUIDELINES AND POLICIES FOR BUY-A-BRICK CAMPAIGNS (SUMMARY)

Brick inscriptions are intended solely to recognize the donor and assist in raising funds. The only inscriptions that will be allowed are those that:

- Contain only the name(s) of the donor(s) or family member(s) of the donor(s) (including any official title such as Dr. or Alderman).
- Commemorate the death of a family member, and in such instances may include the name of the deceased, the words "In memory of" and the deceased person's name, and a date (either the date of death or date of inscription).
- In instances in which the park allows pets, the name of the donor's pet.

No inscriptions of any other kind will be allowed, and no text other than that described above shall be permitted on any brick paver. No signs, symbols or logos of any kind will be allowed. The Park District General Counsel, or his or her designee, is responsible for reviewing all proposed inscriptions. If a proposed inscription is rejected because it does not comply with these guidelines and policies, the Park District shall communicate such rejection and the reasons therefore to the Advisory Council president in writing, who in turn, is responsible for communicating the rejection to the donor. If the Park District Legal Department does not reject a proposed inscription within thirty days of receipt by the Legal Department of the proposed inscription, such inscription shall be deemed accepted. Any rejection of a proposed inscription can be appealed by the Advisory Council or the donor to the General Superintendent of the Park District in accordance with and pursuant to the time limits of Chapter VII, Section C.6(a) and (b) of the Code of the Chicago Park District.
